Excerpt of pertinent information :

1. Several well placed sources say that General Malinovsky and Vyshinski, Russian Vice Commissar of Foreign Affairs, arrived in Bucharest on 27 February to solve the Rumanian political crisis.
2. One source says that Vyshinski called on the King the same day and told him that Russia is most dissatisfied with the leaders of the historic parties and that he held the King responsible, since Sanatexcu and Radescu were palace choices.
3. Vyshinski's visit to the King took place almost at the same time when the public radio was announcing Radescu's dismissal and that ten ranking army officers had protested the use of the army for political purposes. (Comment: it is felt that this is another count against Radescu towards his removal as head of the government.)

This is all the pertinent information on subject in this document.
